

LOCAL ATTORNEY RECOGNIZED NATIONALLY

Dail R. Cantrell, the managing partner of The Cantrell Law Firm, has recently been recognized by multiple organizations for outstanding legal accomplishments.

Dail R. Cantrell was selected as a Lawyer of Distinction and will be featured in the New York Times and the upcoming edition of "The National Law Journal." Lawyer of Distinction is an award given by fellow attorneys to recognize a colleague who excels in the practice of law. Applicants must first receive a nomination and then they are evaluated on twelve (12) different factors, which are designed to recognize the applicant's achievements.

Earlier this year, Dail R. Cantrell was recognized by the American Trial Lawyers Association (ATLA) as being one of the top 100 civil litigators. This organization is limited to 100 attorneys who have demonstrated a high level of success in the courtroom.

Finally, Dail R. Cantrell was inducted as a lifetime member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum, which is an exclusive organization reserved for attorneys who have obtained multiple jury verdicts or settlements in excess of $1,000,000.

Dail R. Cantrell currently holds one of the largest animal attack verdicts in the South; has received Multi-Million Dollar verdicts for people who have been injured; and holds some of the highest jury verdict awards in the State of Tennessee.

Dail R. Cantrell recently received Multi-Million Dollar verdict in Knox County, Tennessee, resulting from a wrongful death action involving a pedestrian. This summer, Dail R. Cantrell received a verdict of $750,000 in a life insurance policy dispute. He was also the first attorney in Anderson County, Tennessee, to receive a jury verdict in excess of $2,000,000.

Dail R. Cantrell has been practicing law since 1991 and it was his desire to focus on civil litigation. However, his firm is not limited solely to accidental death and injury cases. In fact, The Cantrell Law Firm is also known for its work in divorce and child custody cases; contested probate actions; land disputes; and breach of contract cases.

After receiving the Ray H. Jenkins award for Excellence in Trial Advocacy and the McClung Medal, his law firm was referred to as being "A local law firm with a national reputation." Over the past thirty (30) years this has turned out to be true.

Dail R. Cantrell has published multiple articles on Trial Advocacy; was Professor of Law at the University of Tennessee for ten (10) years; wrote a textbook on Trial Advocacy techniques; and he is a frequent lecturer at risk management seminars.

The Cantrell Law Firm is a full service civil litigation firm willing to help anyone going through a divorce; anyone who has suffered physical injuries resulting from a car accident or the negligence of another; issue related to a Conservatorship; anyone going through land disputes or breaches of contract; and they serve as corporate counsel for multiple businesses.

In today's world, few lawyers actually take cases to trial. Dail R. Cantrell and The Cantrell Law Firm have been recognized on a national level for their success in the courtroom. He and his law firm currently have more pending lawsuits in Anderson County than any other law firm in the State of Tennessee; as such Lucas Arnold, Krysta Brown Trouy, and Emily Horton are all extremely talented civil litigators.

According to Dail R. Cantrell, when he formed his firm, it was with the following vision:

"I don't come from a family of attorneys. My mother, Sarah Cantrell, worked for a church, and stayed at home to raise me and my sister. My father, Bill Cantrell, was a machinist at Y-12 and built houses on the side. When I opened my law firm, I wanted to give back to the community that gave so much to me. As a result, we are one of the few firms that provide FREE CONSULTATIONS. While we hope you never need an attorney, if you do, we will be here to help you."

You can learn more about Dail R. Cantrell and The Cantrell Law Firm by visiting their website at cantrell-law.com and if you have any inquiries, please free to contact any one of the attorneys who work at The Cantrell Law Firm, at (865) 457-9100.

"I don't come from a family of attorneys. My mother, Sarah Cantrell, worked for a church, and stayed at home to raise me and my sister. My father, Bill Cantrell, was a machinist at Y-12 and built houses on the side. When I opened my law firm, I wanted to give back to the community that gave so much to me."

